

Job Posting: Peer Leader (for LGBTQ+ high school youth)

Program Description

OUT MetroWest supports the health and emotional well-being of LGBTQ+ high-school youth through social and educational activities. Meetings have structure but are also casual and fun. Prism, Nexus, and Umbrella are places for LGBTQ+ youth to meet friends, connect with LGBTQ+ adult role models, and build community. Sample meeting activities include icebreakers, crafts, games, discussions, workshops, and panels. Sample topics include LGBTQ+ history, icons, activism, relationships, health education, representation, mental health, culture, self-expression, and self-advocacy.

Our current programs include:

- Prism (formerly known as WAGLY), for LGBTQ+ high school youth—every Monday, 6:45-8:30pm.
- Nexus, for LGBTQ+ middle school youth—every Tuesday, 6:30-8pm.
- Umbrella for transgender and gender nonconforming high school youth—1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month, 6:45-8:30pm.
- Satellite Programs for middle and high school youth throughout MetroWest communities
- Peer Leader Meetings, every 2nd and 4th Monday from 5-6pm.
 - Peer Leaders leading Prism will meet in person at 160 Hollis Street, Framingham, MA, all other Peer Leaders will join virtually at <http://tinyurl.com/PrismZoom>
- Quarterly Planning meetings, every September, November, February and May we meet to plan programs.
